

David Krosschell, Bass Trombone

David Krosschell is an accomplished bass trombonist, tenor trombonist, and music educator in the Raleigh/Durham/Chapel Hill, NC area. Well versed in classical, jazz, and commercial styles, he has performed with the North Carolina Symphony, the Opera Company of North Carolina, Fayetteville Symphony, North Carolina Jazz Repertory Orchestra. Dr. Krosschell currently teaches a wide variety of students from all over the Triangle, from beginners through the collegiate level and is on faculty at UNC Pembroke. In addition, David offers his expertise to a number of area Triangle schools in the way of sectionals and clinics. He holds a Doctoral degree in music performance from Northwestern University, where he studied with Charles Vernon, Michael Mulcahy, Randy Hawes, and Ed Kleinhammer. David earned a Masters degree in trombone performance from the University of North Texas where he studied with Dennis Bubert and Dr. Vern Kagarice, as well as holding membership in the 1 o'clock Lab Band and North Texas Wind Symphony. David received his Bachelor's degree from Western Michigan University in both music education and music performance while studying with Dr. Steve Wolfenbarger.